About this message

Discover how daily dwelling in God's presence unlocks unparalleled joy, peace, and freedom. Experience what it means to flourish in the courts of the Lord this year.

In this Sunday service, the pastor declares 2026 as a year of flourishing for every believer who chooses to dwell in God's presence. The message draws from the image of trees planted in God's courts — always bearing fruit, always green, and never withering — and calls the congregation to make God's house their dwelling place throughout the year.

What You Will Learn:

- What it means to flourish in God's courts
- How daily worship and prayer position you for breakthrough
- Why dwelling in God's presence produces fruit in every season
- The connection between God's house and personal flourishing
- How to make 2026 your greatest year in God
