About this message

Restored to God's presence sermon: discover how sin brought shame and hiding, breaking fellowship with God — and how Christ's death and resurrection opened the way back into His presence.

In this message, "From Hiding to His Presence," we go back to the Garden of Eden in Genesis 3:8, where Adam and Eve first hid from God after sin entered the world. That moment broke the relationship God intended for humanity — a relationship of open, unashamed fellowship with Him. But the story doesn't end in hiding. Through the finished work of the cross and the power of the resurrection, we are restored to God's presence and given freedom to worship Him again.

The preacher also shares a personal testimony of shame, hiding, and a life-changing encounter with God, reminding us that no matter how far we've run or how deep our shame, God's love (Romans 5:8) reaches us and calls us back into fellowship with Him.

In this message, you will learn:

- Why sin causes us to hide from God instead of run to Him
- How Genesis 3:8 reveals the broken relationship between God and man
- What Christ's death and resurrection accomplished for our access to God
- How God's love for sinners (Romans 5:8) proves He pursues us even in our shame
- Why God's presence brings true freedom to worship
