About this message

Discover what it means to be an Evergreen Christian — a believer who stays fruitful, green, and strong in every season of life. Learn how God's Word keeps you flourishing even through life's storms.

In this sermon, the pastor uses the powerful imagery of an evergreen tree to describe the life of a Christian who stays rooted in God's presence. Drawing from Psalm 1, Ezekiel 47, and Daniel 4, the message shows how believers can bear fruit every month, remain productive in old age, and thrive during times of crisis — because their source of life flows from God's sanctuary.

What You Will Learn:

- What it means to be an Evergreen Christian who never dries up
- How to stay fruitful and green in every season of life
- Why staying rooted in God's presence keeps you from withering
- How the imagery of the palm tree and cedar describe the Christian life
- Why your labor is never in vain when you are abounding in the Lord
